BBC News states: Prescott may seek judicial review of phone hack claims. <http://tinyurl.com/3xv9mto>

That's really ripe coming from Prescott, as it was under the now 'Discredited David Blunket's Directive' that all Councils could Tap the UK phone lines so 'Hack, Tap' whatever you want to call it is an invasion of 'Civil Rights'.

Town hall bureaucrats have been caught snooping on private details held on a giant 'Big Brother' tax and benefits database. Link to cover story here > <http://tinyurl.com/3y6nfc8>

Remember the threat by UK Gov of £500,000 under the new powers for Data breaches?

So come on UK Gov start fining the 'Town Hall Data Breacher's'.

Come on Privacy regulator the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) do you darn.
